WILKIE BARD'S £750 A WEEK.

Wilkie Bard has accepted an offer 2750 a week to play at Hammerstein's Victoria Theatre, New York, for two weeks, and will sail shortly to test the American music-hall and "pick up the dough."

Speaking to the "Daily Sketch " the popular comedian said he had previously preceived an offer to appear in America, but when the contract arrived he found it stipulated for seven shows a week, whereas he was under the impression that Sunday was free. "I linvo no religious scruples about playing on Sunday," he added, "but I refused that offer because had I known it was for soven days a week I should have asked more money. "Thave often wished to see New York, and the present trip will combine business with pleasure. "My programme will include 'You Havo to Sing in Ragtime,' The Wriggly Rag, and 'The Night Watchman.'

Don't you think the American public will feel a bit sore about your skits on them in your ragtime songs?!! On the contrary, I have been asked specially to include those numbers, was his reply. The Americans, I am fold, keenly appreciate burlesque and satire, even when it is directed against their own "I was asked to play for eight weeks.

THE FIRST INDIAN BISHOP

CONSECRATION AT CALCUTTA.

A remarkable amount of interest has Tapestry-covered drawing room Suite, been aroused, both in India and in Eng-Trak Sideboard with Bevelled Mirror, land by the appointment of the first Indian Dinner Waggons, Extension Dining Table Bishop. The Rev. V. S. Azariah was conand Chairs, Over-mantel, Tan Tables, secrated at Calcutta by the Metropolitar of India, assisted by all the Bishops of the Provinces. His name is known far and wide through his connexion with the Stud ent Christian movement, and he numbers many of the chief Christian leaders of al denominations, both in the West and the East, among his close friends.

Probably never since it was built has the Cathodral at Calcutta welcomed so many of the leaders of other denominations beneath its roof as on the occasion of his consecration. The new Bishop's diocese lies in the Hyderabad State, and he takes his title Bishop of Domakal, from the headquarters TUESDAY, July 15, of the Indian Missionary Society of Tinnevelly, a purely Indian mission, supported, managed, and worked by Indians, of which he has been for some years the head. The new diocese contains 7,000 Christians, and

From the missionary point of view, the diocese of Domakal is a singularly fruitful field. In the Khammamett district, which forms the Southern portion of it, there were over 500 baptisms in a single year and the whole work shows a striking example of the power of Christianity to effect a religious, moral, and socia revolution among the lowest and most degraded people in the whole India. The converts are metly drawn from the lowest classes of the " outcaste communities, and they thomselv. s confess to having been only a few years ago liars, drunkards and thieves. Now a vigorous Christian life is being built up. The people, if by no means perfect, improving in cleanliness, in morals, self-respect, and in their economic con

The legal status of the new Bishop that of "assistant Bishop to the Bishop of Madras." From the inception of the scheme it has always been understood tha part of his duty would be to take off the shoulders of the Bishop of Madras some of the burden of the touring season in the jumense mission districts of his diocese. The Bishop of Domakul has already completed one such tour, and private corres pondence from those to whom he minister. ed reveals how fully his work has already justified the stop that was taken in calling him to the episcopate. 'It is hoped that in time the new diocess of Domakal will be supported mainly the Indian Christian_Church, but for the support of the Bishop an endowment is be raised, and for this the Bishops of the Anglican Church in India have issued an appeal! They ask for £6,686 (Rs. one lakh), which should yield a sufficient sum to give the Bishop £200 a year, in addition to his house ront and travelling expenses, and this sum they ask for from Churchmen in India and England, " confident that the mond itself to all who have at heart the welfare of the Indian Church, and desire to promote its development on sound

BANNOCKBURN.

(From Our Scottish Correspondent.)

The suggestion that there nover was Battle of Bannockburn will come with shock of bewilderment to most Scotsmen. Yet as to whether the battle should called "Bannockburn," there seems room for reasonable doubt. In a monograph on the Innous conflict for Scottish independence, Mr. W. A. Mackenzio invites a reconsideration of prevalent beliefs. He has brushed saids modern glosses, says the "Dundee Advertiser," and gone to the fountain heads for data; us the result, our sense of the magnitude of the achievement of Bruce is enhanced: we realise more strongly than ever that Bannockburn was | physician, Dr. Gumpert, has written in one a turning point in the national fortunes. AMERICAN AND EUROPEAN RAILWAY DEVELOPMENT.

RAILWAYS have progressed in s from what they have on the continent of Europe. In Europe the method of transport has to adapt itsell to the exigencies of the existing clylisation and, Occ ording to these for ore, she may and to the traffic which has already become settled in direction. In the United States, on the contrary, the railway has preceded colonisation and has to a certain extent created the Health Department of the Municipal DWELL, 20, its own traffic by rapidly developing Council. The deceased had not been in the districts which it traverses. The co-operation of producers, carriers, and public authorities line made it away came as a shock to his many friends. possible for the Americans, for the Mr. Hugall, who was a native of Yorknet thirty years or so, to develon shire, came to Shanghai to join the service agriculture to an enormous extent. This movement has even been sur passed in speed and amount by the present industrial netivity. The Federal Covernment has very effectively encouraged railway dovelopment by granting concessions of lines on perpetual lease, and by very inportant grants of land alongside the increases at a mean annual rate of about 10 per cent., whilst the corres ponding increase in Europe only about 2 per cent. There is difference of 0 to 7 per cent, in the relation between working expenses and receipts of the German and American systems. The methods of working enable the American company to guarantee the economical transport of merchandise at a cost which is about half the cost i Europe, and which justifies the fixing of the average tariff for passenger transport at almost double the French or Clerm in rates. A cheap goods of lottery tickets. service can be provided in the United States, owing to the importance and the nature of the traffic, which comsists of the transport of a -large quantity of heavy goods over very long distances. On the Pennsylvania Railway Company's lines the average slow train carries 600 tons of merchandise; the train, including the locomotive, weighs about 1000 tons, and the cost of transport barely amounts to 0.008 franc per ton kilometre carrice (about ad. per revenue from which works out at 22 the system (43 per cent. in France), fined $2 oach. ture at Mr. Geo.
